"To See or Not to See"

That is the Question.

There's no reason why you should not see if your glasses are right—the kind we sell.

It is part of our business to attend to those useful members—

YOUR EYES

And that we are meeting with marked success is evidenced by the daily increase of our optical business.

We Hate
Bragging,

But beg to remind you that nothing in the way of correcting eye troubles, or grinding every kind of a lens for every kind of eye trouble is beyond our skill.

CAPTAIN FLINT IS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Wife Says Her Husband Makes
Big Money On Water Front.

The marital felicity of Captain Harry W. Flint of the harbor police was brief.
Eighteen months ago Captain Harry was a boatswain's mate on the United States gunboat Bennington, and he fell in love with and married a Honolulu woman.
Shortly thereafter the Bennington was ordered to Manila and Flint went away with her, but he soon finished his term of enlistment, received his discharge and hastened back to Honolulu. Arrived here he received an appointment as chief of the water police.

But now dissensions have arisen in Captain Flint's home and his wife filed suit for divorce in the Circuit Court yesterday. Mrs. Flint states that she married Flint on January 4, 1899, and that on July 31 her husband deserted her, leaving her entirely without means of support, sick and with her child to support. She asserts that Flint has taken rooms elsewhere and does not come to visit her and that she is alone and destitute.

But it is when she asks for temporary alimony that Mrs. Flint makes the most interesting statements. Her complaint alleges that her husband "enjoys a lucrative position on the harbor police of Honolulu, from which he derives an income of $250 per month or more," that is to say, about the same amount as that received by High Sheriff Brown, head of the department. She asks that out of this illegal income Captain Flint be required to allow her the modest sum of $25 per month for her support and for the prosecution of the suit.

Mandamus Refused.

Judge Humphreys refused yesterday to consider the mandamus case brought by Mrs. Caroline G. Silva against J. G. Silva, president of the Portuguese Mutual Benefit Society, for the payment of the death benefit of her husband, on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction. The complaint was addressed to the court as if in regular session, whereas Judge Humphreys is hearing cases only in chambers.

Hogan Case Again.

The bill of exceptions of the defendant in the case of Ernest Hogan vs. the Canadian-Australian R. M. S. Company was filed yesterday in the Circuit Court. It names a number of alleged errors in rulings by the court, notably the fact that the case was set for trial before the deposition of Captain Phillips of the S. S.
Warrimoo had been taken, and charges that the damages allowed, $5,250, were excessive.

Report on Gay Estate.

H. A. Bigelow, as master, appointed to examine the accounts of the trustees of the estate of James Gay, has filed his report in the Circuit Court. He finds the accounts correct in all particulars.

Must Maintain a Road.

Chief Justice Frear handed down a decree yesterday in the case of L. L. Mc-Candless vs. the Honolulu Sugar Company. He holds that the defendant company should be required to keep open a high road through Waimanalo valley, at least twenty feet wide, save where such width is impracticable on account of natural obstructions.

Waialua's Judge.

A. S. Mahanui has been appointed district magistrate of Waialua, in place of Edward Hore, who resigned recently. Judge Mahanui has been station agent at Waialua for some time and is one of the most intelligent Hawaiians in the islands.

Court Notes.

Li Cheung has been appointed Chinese interpreter for the Circuit Court. Judge Stanley has resumed the practice of law and has opened offices over the Bishop bank, with Henry Holmes.

Fred. Wundenberg has been appointed guardian of the Cartwright minors in place of J. M. Monarrat, who has resigned.

J. M. Vivas has been substituted in place of Eddy Strach in the bond of Joseph Fiber, who is suing Nicholas Fraham in the Circuit Court for $3,200 damages for breach of contract.

T. H. Maling of Portland, Me., has been appointed clerk of the United States Courts by Judge Este. Mr. Maling expects to arrive in Honolulu about the middle of September.

LAST NATIVE SCHOOL IN HAWAII CLOSED

With the closing of the schools in the islands at the end of June the last native school in the entire group passed out of existence.

The institution in question was on the little island of Nihaui, the western-most of the group. For twenty-one years this little school has been under the charge of J. B. Kaonea, a native schoolmaster of the old style. The work of the school has been carried on entirely in the Hawaiian tongue, for the English language is scarcely ever to be heard on the island, which is almost the only one where the haoles have not obtained much of a foothold.

But as English is the official language of the islands now and to attain any high office a knowledge of it is necessary, the board has decided that it is best to change the method of teaching in vogue on Nihaui and D. Prigge, a German who lives on the island was appointed to succeed Kaonea, his salary being fixed at $600 per annum.

It is likely that Kaonea's faithful services will be recognized by the board and that he will be appointed trust officer for Nihaui, a position which will bring him a small income that will answer as a pension.

TO NOTIFY MCKINLEY.

Preparations for the First Ceremony of the Campaign.

CANTON, Ohio, July 11.—Preparations have about been completed for the notification of President McKinley of his re-nomination. Two large flags, one covering the upper portion and the other draped over the awnings of the President's home on North Market street, are all the decorations that will meet the eyes of the visitors. Back of the house a large tent has been put up, and here the notification committee will have luncheon, after the ceremonies are completed. The speaking will take place from the famous front porch of the McKinley residence unless the weather prevents, in which event the Opera House will be used. Canton is getting ready for a large crowd. The local committee having charge of the arrangements say the notification will be much more of an event than it was four years ago, and that a larger number of people will be present than on that occasion.

It is probable that a number of speeches besides those of Senator Lodge and President McKinley will be made.
Senator Hanna, Senator Fairbanks and Representative Taylor, of this Congressional district, are to be called on for short addresses.

The business houses of Canton are to be closed for part of the day to afford employees an opportunity to participate in the demonstration to their townsmen.

The publication of the alleged plot against President McKinley did not disturb him in the least. He drove out with Judge Day in the morning and walked about the lawn and porch, chatting with visitors during the afternoon.

During the day Senator Clark of Wyoming called with the delegation from Hawaii, which participated in the Philadelphia convention. There was a brief discussion of the affairs of the islands.

Comptroller Dawes arrived from Washington this afternoon and Senator Fairbanks of Indiana this evening.

CANNOT SAIL TO LAHAINA.

Ship Euterpe May not Legally go There From Newcastle.

Lahaina is not a port of entry in the Hawaiian Territory for foreign vessels, consequently a vessel from a foreign port desiring to come to these islands must keep away from there.

Collector Stackable is in receipt of the following concerning the ship Euterpe:

T. D. 22325.

Treasury Department, July 2.
Collector of Customs, San Francisco, Calif.—Ship Euterpe mentioned in your report of 27th ultimo, can not legally proceed from Newcastle direct to Lahaina, Hawaii. So advise C. D. Bunker & Co., who should cable master.

H. A. TAYLOR,
Assistant Secretary.

THE MODERN INQUISITION.

Little Willie—"Say, pa, what does claw mean?"

Pa—"It means to unite or stick together."

Little Willie—"Then if the butcher cleaves a bone does he stick it together, pa?"

Pa—"Why—er—I guess it does mean to separate, my son."

Little Willie—"And when a man separates from his wife does he cleave to her,
pa?"

Pa—"Young man, it's time you were in bed."
